

How to submit a challenge?

Challenge Guidelines

- Check our Guidelines for Challenges

1. Log in

- Log in with Hitobito (the login you used to register for the GLAMhack) on the Hack Platform
- If you have not registered for the event, please do so here

Log in

 Sign in with Hitobito

 HITOBITO

or

Use your Dribdat account credentials here:

username

password

☐ Je ne suis pas un robot

reCAPTCHA

Verify me

→ Sign in by e-mail if you do not know your password.

or

Create an account

2. Create a challenge

- Click “Post a challenge” to add you own challenge manually or “Import” to import it from Github or GitLab

November 12 – 14, 2026

GLAMhack 2026

SKKG | campo Winterthur

Join this event

Digital Impact Monitor

Provenance Pursuit

Mapping Historical Sporting Events

Your Selection of Pralines

Locate the Past: Geospatial metadata in BBB

Place-linked Images

Teambuilder

GLAMhack 26 "Hack the Gap – Bridging Analog and Digital Worlds"

The 11th edition of our yearly Swiss Open Cultural Data Hackathon (short: GLAMhack) will be hosted by the Stiftung für Kunst, Kultur und Gesellschaft (SKKG) in Winterthur.

Register now!

Post a challenge + Import

3. Challenge Informations

- Enter informations about your challenge

Let's launch your idea!
See How can you upload a challenge?
Need more help? Get in touch with the organising team or raise an issue.

Title

A short team or project name - you may change this later. //80 bytes

Summary

A short, plain-text description of your project or challenge.

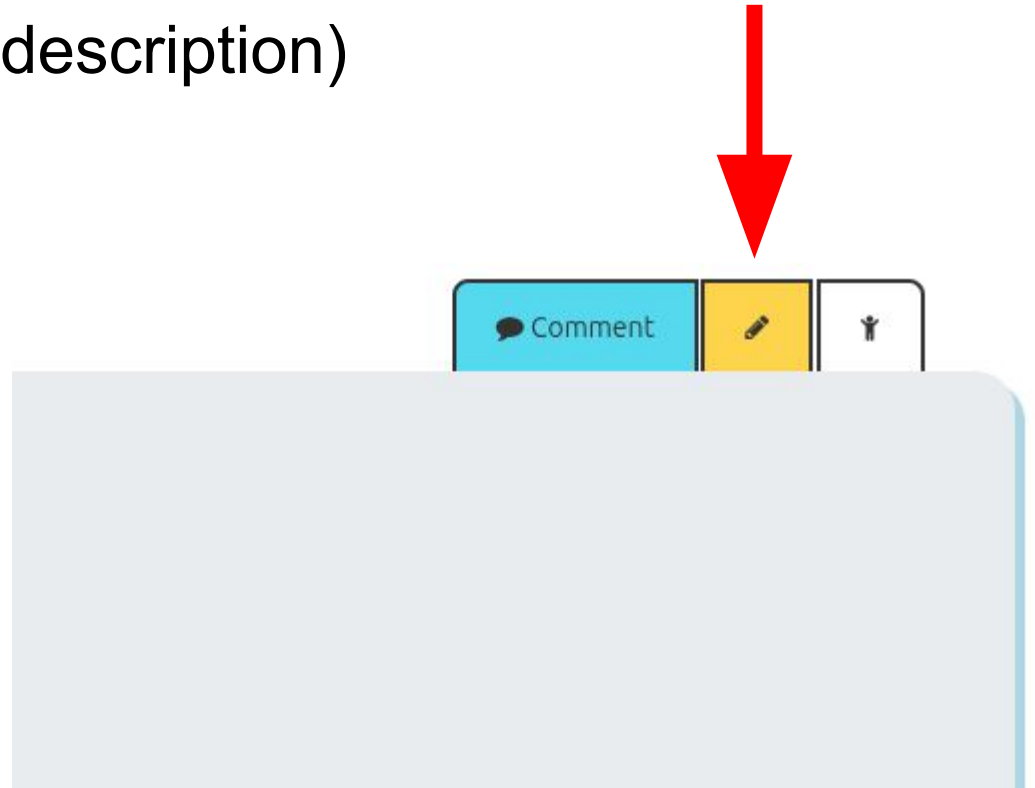

Contact

Your channel, room, or contact address.

Save

Import from repository ...

4. Fill the pitch (Detailed description)

5. Save your changes

- Our organizing team will have a quick look at your challenge and, once published, it will be visible to all participants.

Project updated.

This challenge is waiting to be approved.

Challenge

Comment

Your challenge is ready for GLAMhack